"Dusk At Mills River" by Beverly Kies

A Pastelist with Pizzazz

Beverly Kies is a regionally recognized pastel artist residing in Etowah, NC. Her interest in art began at age 5, when her mother sent her to the Atlanta School of Art. The early passion eventually led to a degree in art education from Ohio University.

Although she has worked in other mediums, pastels are what she loves. "The immediacy of pastels and the layering of colors works well for me," she states. Some people associate pastels with muted colors, but in Beverly's paintings the color explodes off the paper. Her paintings are represented in a medley of work, with her most recent emphasis on the animal world, primarily horses, dogs, cats, bears, and cows. She has also grown to love painting the landscape also, especially living here in the beautiful mountains of North Carolina. She lived in Laurel Park over 14 years and recently moved to Etowah. She teaches workshops in her home and also teaches pastel classes through Blue Ridge Continuing Education College. She loves sharing the knowledge with her students she has learned using this wonderfully vibrant medium.

She is currently selling her work out of her studio. Her website is www.beverlykies.com.

REMINDER: Due to Mother's Day falling on the 2nd Sunday of this Month, our REGULAR ALHC MEETING is on the THIRD SUNDAY at the regular time, May 20th.

CALL FOR ARTISTS!

Applications are now being accepted for the 2018 Open Studio Tour of Henderson County. Registration information can be found online at hcost.org. One of the largest open studio events in the Carolinas, this free, self-guided tour showcases the fine art and craft studios throughout Henderson County. For two days on September 22 & 23 more than 50 artists in 30+ studios welcome art enthusiasts to their workplaces with plenty of new artwork to view and purchase. All proceeds earned during the Open Studio Tour are retained by the artists. In addition to the tour dates guests can view all the artists' work at a Preview Party on Thursday, September 20 as part of the free Rhythm and Brews outdoor music series in downtown Hendersonville. Applications close on June 1.

Thank you for your time and consideration afforded the Open Studio Tour.

Safe rails,
Doug Gelbert
