FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Watercolor demonstration at ALHC April meeting

(Hendersonville, March 15, 2018) – Sandra Moore will do a watercolor demonstration at the Sunday, April 8, meeting of the Art League of Henderson County. She will be painting a timely subject - dogwood blossoms against an out of focus background, all while reviewing her inspiration for the painting and defining the 5 basic painting steps used in its creation. An award winning artist, Moore holds a BA in Art Education from West Virginia University and is an excellent teacher of the medium. She regularly conducts workshops and gives demonstrations throughout Western North Carolina. Her works can be seen at the Asheville Gallery of Art, downtown Asheville and at Trackside Studios in the River Arts District, Asheville. The meeting will begin with a social time at 1:30 p.m. at the Opportunity House, 1411 Asheville Highway, Hendersonville. The public is invited.

At the March monthly exhibit and meeting, attendees were treated to a presentation by local watercolorist, Simone Wood. Her three completed paintings from the demonstration were presented to attendees selected from the audience.

John Anderson's watercolor, "Crystal Clear", was awarded first place in the Art League's monthly member exhibit. Honorable mention went to Gladys Shelton for her acrylic painting, "Rusty Old Car".

ALHC meetings are held the second Sunday of each month at the Opportunity House, 1411 Asheville Highway, Hendersonville.
