FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ALHC Exhibition winners and Feb. program announced

(Hendersonville, January 26, 2018) – Alec Hall’s painting, “Morning Light”, won Viewer’s Choice in the always popular January “Miniatures” exhibit hosted by the Art League of Henderson County.

In the League’s regular January exhibit, Pat Ballard was named Artist of the Month for her watercolor, “Tranquility”. Maxine Tatreau received honorable mention for her watercolor, “Dream Stream”.

The Art League’s Sunday, Feb. 11 meeting at 1:30 p.m. will include a presentation and demo by Edward Morris, well known and local oil painter. He will demonstrate the use of a limited palette to achieve color harmony in a landscape painting, all while providing insight and tips for making art. Morris is a member of the Oil Painters of America, American Impressionist Society, Asheville Urban Landscape Painters, and a signature member of the WNC Plein Air Painters. Among his numerous awards and achievements, his painting, “Evening Light – Broad River” was displayed at the 2016 AAPL 88th Grand National Exhibition, Salmagundi Club, NYC. He teaches workshops and serves as guest speaker for art groups throughout the eastern and southern states.

ALHC meetings are held the second Sunday of each month at the Opportunity House, 1411 Asheville Highway, Hendersonville. The public is invited to attend the meetings, which include monthly exhibition openings, at no charge. Monthly exhibitions remain on display throughout the month and may be seen during the normal hours of the Opportunity House.
