FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Art League meeting to feature local Watercolorist

(Hendersonville, February 14, 2018) – Watercolor artist Simone Wood will present the program at the Sunday, March 11, meeting of the Art League of Henderson County. An award winning artist, Wood is known for her loose, impressionist watercolor style of painting, especially colorful birds. Her works can be seen locally at Art MoB Studios, downtown Hendersonville. The meeting will begin with a social time at 1:30 p.m. at the Opportunity House, 1411 Asheville Highway, Hendersonville.

At the recently concluded February monthly exhibit and meeting, attendees were treated to a most informative presentation by oil painter, Ed Morris. His demonstration featured the use of a limited palette to achieve color harmony in a landscape painting, all the while providing insight and tips for making art, applicable to not only oil but to all media.

Ellen Gennaro's watercolor, "Good Sign", was awarded first place in the Art League's monthly exhibit. Honorable mention went to Tina Duncan for her oil painting, "Sunburst #2"

ALHC meetings are held the second Sunday of each month at the Opportunity House, 1411 Asheville Highway, Hendersonville. The public is invited to attend the meetings, which include monthly exhibition openings, at no charge. Monthly exhibitions remain on display throughout the month and may be seen during the normal hours of the Opportunity House. The Art League is composed of artists in various media and skill sets, as well as those wishing to support the arts within their community.

Membership in the Art League allows for the exchange of ideas, artistic opportunities, and resources. The league was founded in 1960 with a mission to encourage and assist in the development of individual artistic talent, as well as for the general enjoyment of art.

Guests and new members are always welcome. For more information, visit artleague.net.
