

Contact: Darlyne Hayes, Publicity
Cell: 518-859-7885
Email: hayes_darlyne@yahoo.com
Website: www.artleague.net

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May Program Artist Lenore Barnett, Presenter

HENDERSONVILLE, NC, April 15, 2017 – The Art League of Henderson County congratulated April’s meeting Viewer’s Choice Art Show member winners. Maxine Tatreau won First Place with her acrylic titled, Forest Trees. Honorable Mention went to Sally Brasfield for her oil painting titled, Lilacs & Roses.

Lenore Barnett is May’s featured artist. She will be doing a presentation and short demo with primary emphasis on critiquing paintings. The Member Challenge for May is Florals.

The art league’s May meeting will be held Sunday, May 21 at the Opportunity House, 1411 Asheville Highway, Hendersonville.

Beginner through seasoned artists who work in all 2D mediums are invited to attend ALHC monthly meetings on the second Sunday of each month at the. Each meeting consists of a “Meet and Greet” Reception with refreshments at 1:30 p.m., a short business meeting at 2 p.m., then generally an educational demonstration and presentation by a local recognized professional artist follows. The May meeting will be held on the third Sunday instead of the second, due to the Mother’s Day holiday. ALHC meetings are free, open to the general public as guests. Individual membership for one year is $45, couples $65. Members can participate in Member’s Only Art Shows, display their art and compete for money and gift card prizes provided by the league’s business sponsors. ALHC supports local middle and high school art teachers with fundraising events throughout the year to provide art supplies for young area artists.

For more information about the Art League of Henderson County, visit www.artleague.net.

###