Sunday July 11 at 1:30—“Art in Pieces” Collage Artists Put It Together

Join us next Sunday at Trinity Presbyterian Church and see four different approaches to collage, plus a demonstration on how to pour epoxy resin over your collage works.

Combining watercolor painting with collage, Miriam Hughes brings a new perspective to both mediums using imported papers, wrapping papers and metallic paints.

Nancy Smeltzer demonstrated her unique work incorporating fabric, lace, and digital prints at the Marked Tree Winery.

Amy Casteel creates vivid paper collage portraits.

Again, the meeting format will be informal. Each artist will have a well-separated table and you will be free to move around and among them and visit with one another.

We look forward to seeing you there!

Diane Dean recently had a show of Hendersonville scenes done with paper, fabric and paint. She covers her collage in resin and will demonstrate that process.

Sunday August 8 at 1:30— “Making Connections” An Orientation Meeting for New Members

We invite all new members to join us for a special orientation meeting on August 8th. Meet the officers and committee chairs. Learn about Art League projects and events and how you can become involved. Make connections with other newcomers and get to know some of the old- (and-not-so-old) time members. This event is all about you and how pleased we are that you have joined the Art League! Trinity Presbyterian Church (900 Blythe Street, Hendersonville).

Welcome to our Newest Members

Look for these new members at the July 11th meeting!

From the President

Our members have certainly embraced the opportunity to get back involved in all the opportunities we have for artists and art lovers in our community. Plus, our membership has increased over 50 percent so far this year!

The Art League had a highly visible presence at the Marked Tree Winery event. Lisa Casperson, Paula Sefchock, Nancy Smeltzer, Don Osterberg, and our Intern, Bethany Kistemaker, worked hard (twice through pouring rain) to make it happen. Overall, in spite of the rain, it was great exposure for our artists and our organization.

Our Workshop Program is gaining momentum and some classes are totally filled. We have instructors reaching out to teach exciting programs like paper making, acrylic pouring and other topics. There are lots of opportunities for members to get involved. Participation is a great way to get to know other members. We could use someone to plan our monthly meeting programs, organize new critique and support groups, manage our website and a number of other areas. So, don't be shy – share your skills.

I look forward to seeing everyone in person as we continue with our meetings. Please feel free to reach out to me anytime if you have questions or ideas you'd like to share.

Diane Dean

Get Involved: Volunteer Opportunities

It's nearly time to recruit a slate of officers for 2022 to be elected at the member meeting in October. Mary Vernick and Jean Tuech will be “retiring” from their positions as Secretary and Treasurer. Other opportunities include program planning for monthly meetings, PR, and website maintenance. Newcomers are welcome to participate!

In addition, the ArtScape Program has begun ramping up for the 2022 season. New committee members are needed to assist with the opening event, manage artist and sponsor applications, distribute brochures and send press releases. We invite everyone to get involved.

It's Not Too Early to Think about Fall

Let's hear your ideas for programs or people you would like to suggest and classes and workshops you would like to take or to teach! Contact Diane Dean at president@artleaguehvl.org.

Enrollment Continues for Summer Arts Academy

There is something for everyone among our summer classes and workshops. In addition to classes and workshops in various painting and drawing media, new members are offering new directions. Sally Heiderman will offer a special “Grandparent (or parent) and Child Collage Play Date” and an “Art Bookmaking” workshop for adults, and new member Susan Brooks will be teaching “Wire-Wrapping a Pendant” for our first foray into jewelry instruction.

These classes will take place in the League Classroom at Trinity Presbyterian Church with a limit of 7 students and appropriate Covid-19 protocols. Find details and registration forms on the League website. (www.artleaguehvl.org).

Call to Artists: Art in Bloom Deadline July 28th

The Gallery at Flat Rock will pair twenty floral designers with an equal number of artists to present interpretations of juried works of art for its sixth annual Art in Bloom exhibit, September 3-5, 2021.

This call is open to all original 2D and 3D artwork (painting, photography, mixed media, sculpture, glass, wood, fiber, jewelry, etc.). All artwork must be original – no giclée prints.

A floral theme in your artwork is NOT necessary. NOTE: Artists that were featured in the 2020 Art in Bloom exhibit should not apply this year. Exhibit Dates: September 4 and 5. 10am to 5pm.

Art In Bloom pairs art with floral arrangements.

It's So Nice to See You Again!

The June Member Meeting brought us together again for the first time since March of 2020. With our teachers giving demonstrations and explaining their plans for classes and workshops, there was plenty to see and to say.

Sue Kirschbaum, Annie Kramer, Delores Andrus happy to be out and about.

The Marked Tree Vineyard Weekend event on June 12 & 13 brought out enthusiastic crowds for music, art, (and wine). Art League members Don Osterberg, Paula Sefchok, Lisa Casperson, Nancy Smeltzer, and Diane Dean led workshops and demos.

Don Osterberg held a two-day plein air painting workshop.

Paula Sefchok and Lisa Casperson did an acrylic paint pouring demo.

League secretary Mary Vernick sampled the wine.

The July to September Library Show was installed on June 25th with lots of works by our new members in both the “Anything Goes” and the “Drawings” theme walls.

Member News: Marcia Rieff Wins Medal of Honor Award

Marcia Rieff won the 2021 Medal of Honor in Watercolor at the open exhibition of the Catherine Lorillard Wolfe Art Club. She was also elected into full signature membership. The CLW is a women’s organization affiliated with the Metropolitan Museum of Art in NYC and promotes women in the arts.

Marcia Rieff’s “Johnson’s Alley” in Rapid City, SD.
